When I moved to Oregon 11 years ago, vote by mail was a new experience for me. Voting had been an intimidating process previously, where I typically felt uninformed and surprised when I arrived to vote, even avoiding it because I felt like I didn't have enough information to vote accurately to my beliefs and values. When I got my first vote by mail ballot and voter pamphlet I finally felt like I could make the best decision for me. I spent time learning and studying and googling all the candidates and measures that were available to me, I finally felt like an informed voter. It is invaluable to me to be able to have the time with my ballot to make the best decision. Please keep vote by mail!!!
