

Submitter:

Dan Peterson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

The mail in voting system in Oregon is the most successful in the country. It encourages participation, saves time for voters and their employers, gives more time to research candidates and issues. Fears of fake votes are overblown and incredibly few cases have been discovered.