

Submitter:

David Schroeder

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Whether the concern that mail-in voting does not provide a level of security is valid or not, very little has been done to show the public how it is secure. Therefore, I am completely in support of requiring in-person voting, which would even better to include proof of citizenship.