You have GOT TO BE KIDDING ME!! The only reason the Republicans want to make it harder for people to vote is they know they'd be voted out of office as they are always ALWAYS on the side of MONEY - that's the only thing they care about. Vote by Mail should be the law off the land! It's already hard enough for working families to take time off to vote in other states. This is absurd and YOU KNOW IT. The risk of voting fraud is a RED HERRING. I'm so god damn mad this is even something we are talking about!
