Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I oppose this measure. Mail in voting is one of the great parts of being an Oregonian, allowing voters to have time to research what is being voted on, and on a schedule that works for them. Limiting voting to only Election Day will make it difficult for many voters to participate, cause delays and logistical problems, and is not in the democratic spirit of encouraging participation in voting as a civic duty. I strongly oppose this measure.
