

Submitter:

Trevor Ferris

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting is the most important duty as a citizen of a democratic society, despite this election day has not been made a national holiday and as such many Americans are forced to choose between their work or voting. Oregon is one of the few states that does not force that choice and I feel it is important to keep it such.