

Submitter:

Cate Chapelle

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Vote early and by mail is essential to a fair and representative electoral process. I have frequently been denied time off requests on election days and would not have been able to vote if I hadn't been able to mail in my ballot. Restricting voting to in person on election day only serves to reduce the number of eligible voters whose views are not represented in our government and disproportionately benefits those with disposable time and income.