SB210

Vote by mail is essential for inclusivity and accessibility. Anything from conflicting work schedules, childcare, disability, lack of transportation and funds for such things can keep someone from participating in in-person voting, and a repeal of voting by mail will lead to difficulties for citizens to participate in their patriotic duties and should be seen as a direct attack on our democratic process. Given how we have proven this process as trustworthy over the years with minimal exploitation, there is no legitimate reason to end this process.
