

Submitter:

Desmond Garden

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting is a fundamental right and removing the flexibility with which Oregon currently operates undermines that right. This is especially true in Oregon where the household incomes have not risen at the same rates as housing, food, etc. This means that given the choice between working or taking time off to vote, many people may have to choose to work instead.