

Submitter:

Kyle Freeman

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has some of the highest voter turnout in the country due to mail in voting. Many people are unable to physically vote in person. Changing to in person voting would drastically reduce the amount of voter engagement leading to elections that are less representative of the people. No reason to change something that's working well without problems to a system that creates more barriers and challenges for citizens to vote.