I strongly oppose in-person voting. I want to continue to vote by mail. Mail is more efficient and easier. In-person voting would be chaotic and create major difficulties for so many people. Mail in voting promotes more people voting. Many people would find having to go in-person too difficult, due to their physical/financial/age/location situation. In-person voting is stupid for this time period. There is no reason for it. Oregon does a great job monitoring voting.
