

Submitter:

Maximilian Cable

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is absolutely no need for this requirement, nor any credible proof of widespread voter fraud. This would making voting difficult or inconvenient for millions of workers, parents, and more. Sure, wealthy people and retirees have all day on a Tuesday, but what about the rest of us? Voting by mail increases civic participation and makes life easier for Oregonians!