

Submitter:

Kathryn DeBone

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

In-person voting on election day is a cornerstone of the democratic participation process. It ensures ballot integrity through established procedures, like voter identification and secure polling locations, which minimize the risk of fraud. This method fosters a sense of community as citizens gather to exercise their civic duty. I support pathways for voters to participate if they are unable to attend due to disability or being away on Election Day.