

I firmly oppose SB210. I do not wish to return to in-person voting in Oregon, nor do I support the requirement to show ID when voting or requesting a ballot. The State already verifies citizenship at the time of voter registration, and the rates of voter fraud in Oregon are absurdly low (.00006% rate), making clear that this proposed law's aim is not election security but a naked attempt at voter suppression.