

Submitter:

Sarah Adams

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I'm writing to express my strong opposition to the proposed ban on mail-in voting. As a tax-paying citizen and a full-time worker with a disability, I find this proposal deeply troubling and personally offensive.

Mail-in voting is not just a convenience for me- it's a necessity. Due to my disability, voting in person isn't a viable option unless significant accommodations are provided, which, historically, haven't been. This proposal feels like an attempt to strip me of my fundamental right to vote- as if my voice matters less than those who are able-bodied. That is absolutely unacceptable.

I take tremendous pride in my country and especially my state and I believe in the democratic principle that every eligible citizen should have equal access to the ballot box. Mail-in voting ensures that individuals like me can participate. This system is secure, reliable, and inclusive. I urge you to reject this proposal and to uphold the rights of all citizens.

Thank you for your time and consideration.