Look, I joined the military right out of high school and ended up back in Or when I ETS'd, so I have Always voted by mail. It works. It works Well. And as we liked to say in the service, 'If It's Not Broke, Don't Fix It'. And think about all the people with mobility issues? or transportation issues? or family care issues? I mean come on, this is nothing but a pathetically transparent attempt by sycophantic cowardly cultists to give their party every little edge against anyone who actually votes and has Absolutely Nothing to do with 'protecting democracy'.

Oh, and the lines? are we going to have enough polling places suddenly? staff? will it be a federal (therefor paid) holiday? Do we see where this is going? When it becomes physically impossible for people to vote the party in power will keep it. And then...

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing."

-Edmund Burke
