I am writing in opposition to SB210. Taking away mail-in voting would only hurt Oregon voters and unnecessarily prevent people from casting their vote. For example, my mother has a neurological condition making it very difficult for her to go to a polling location due to her mobility issues. Mail-in voting simplifies this process for her and makes voting possible. There has never been evidence of wide spread voter fraud and there is no good reason to take away a system that allows people to vote easily.
