

Submitter: James Edge

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

The United States is a democracy by an elected republic. The surest way to support democracy is to give citizens as much opportunity to vote as possible. In-person voting excludes a number of citizens who otherwise would be able to vote. We should not exclude citizens from their right to vote.