

Submitter:

Dustin Prater

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

The only reason people are distrustful of our current system is because they have been told to be by the party sponsoring this bill. There has been no proof of any fraud in our recent elections and turnout is some of the highest in the nation. Why make voting harder on everyone, while opening it to actual attacks, when the system we have in place already works extremely well?