

Submitter:

Rylynn Poole

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is no reason whatsoever to reduce or remove mail-in voting access. It vastly increases voter turnout with no significant increase to voter fraud. The only reason someone would have to promote this is to lower turnout in order to help them close the margin they are losing by.