SB210

I live in a rural area and have No desire to get in my car and drive 20 plus miles to vote within a certain time period! Our vote by mail system has worked just fine for 20 some years! Leave it alone! This is just another attempt by a republican to make voting harder. I resent that. Requiring in person voting is hard for working parents, people, the elderly, people that live in remote areas and the list goes on. I will repeat this is just another ploy on the part of a republican to disenfranchise voters. Please vote no!
