Oregon's vote by mail system is a model of democratic accessibility and it's one of the many things that makes me a proud Oregonian. It ensures that all eligible voters have the opportunity to participate in elections, regardless of personal circumstances such as work commitments, family responsibilities, disabilities, or transportation challenges. Discontinuing this system would risk excluding countless voters and compromising the state's reputation as a leader in fair and accessible elections. Please preserve our right to vote by mail and uphold our states commitment to democratic principles.
