

Submitter:

Rachel Oberson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

To whom it may concern, Forcing people to return to in person voting does one thing, It makes sure the majority of the working class is left out. People with full time jobs and children and tight schedules and low wages cannot take a day off to vote. Our system of mail in voting works. This bill is ridiculous and it is unfair.