Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I oppose this measure because I think that mail-in voting is a unifying and equalizing factor in Oregon's elections. Having in-person voting on one day, even with exceptions for medical or other needs, is inherently limiting to the number of people who are able to vote, as seen by consistent reports from other states that people who wished to vote were unable to. People of all walks of life should be able to appreciate a measure that lets our citizens better participate in our democracy.
