

|                                |                           |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Submitter:                     | Sam Gaty                  |
| On Behalf Of:                  | Self                      |
| Committee:                     | Senate Committee On Rules |
| Measure, Appointment or Topic: | SB210                     |

Oregons system of mail in voting has functioned well and there is no need to change this system. I am proud of how Oregon runs it's elections. I live in Portland but have many family members that live in remote and rural parts of the state and making in-person voting would put an extra burden on them. I support the current system that make mail in ballots the standard for all Oregonians.