

Submitter:

Laura Ward

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is plenty of research that supports that mail in voting does not present a large quantity of voter fraud and that in fact more voter fraud comes from in person only areas and states. In person only voting also severely limits the amount of people who are able to vote. It targets our most in need populations and makes it harder or next to impossible for them to vote. I do not support this bill at all.