

Submitter:

James Glavin

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I oppose changing the law to eliminate mail in voting. Mandating in-person voting caters to the right-wing conspiracy theories around voter fraud, and makes the process of being involved in a democracy more difficult, time-consuming, and annoying. Mail-in voting is an elegant system that respects the reality of citizen's lives and should be preserved.