

Submitter:

Brian Zambrano

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Limiting voting to 'in-person' is an unnecessary and undemocratic hindrance to the citizenry. It is my opinion that such measures serve only to curtail the voice of applicable voters, fueled by as-yet unfounded fears that mail-in voting is uniquely susceptible to fraud.