

Submitter:

Owen Colgrove

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Supporting this bill is supporting voter suppression. Thousands would be obstructed from voting if we were to end mail-in voting due to our outdated tradition of having Election Day be on a Tuesday. People would have to choose voting over their job and their familial responsibilities, a choice that would affect low-income households and single parents the most. Vote no.