

Submitter:

Matt Russell

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Absolutely not. The federal government being hellbent on taking the country to isolationism is bad enough, as if that has ever gone well in world history. We should be fighting to keep our standards and to continue to progress with our policies, not repealing acts that improved our ability to share our votes