

Submitter:

Kent Goodman

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is only one reason for opposing mail-in votes and that is to make it harder to vote, especially for minorities and just about anyone else. Republicans know that with mail-in votes they are at a serious disadvantage. Mail-in voting should stay.