SB210

Dear Sirs and Ma'ams,

I believe in Oregon's vote-by-mail system. This proposed shift to exclusive in-person voting, coupled with stringent identification requirements is anti-democratic, threatening to disenfranchise countless Oregonians. Many citizens, including the elderly, disabled, and those with demanding work schedules, rely on the convenience and flexibility of our very secure vote-by-mail procedures. I urge you to reject Senate Bill 210 and uphold the integrity of Oregon's electoral system as it is currently.

Respectfully submitted,

Terese M. Thoennes
