SB210

I strongly support SB210. With our most recent election exposing that thousands of illegal aliens were on our voter rolls, some of which voted, and ballots being mailed to dead people and people who moved long ago, we need to secure our election system. I think voting in-person with ID is an excellent idea. The convenience of voting at the kitchen table was appealing, but it is not any longer. I want to have confidence in our election system again, and I know others do too. I hope that you will support SB210 and help return election confidence to all the people of Oregon. Vote YES on SB210.
