

Submitter: Tim Guynes

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

This voting process has been a positive success from it's inception. It is a model example to our whole nation. The idea of doing away with it is ridiculous and should not be considered. It feels like an attempt by a certain party to control elections. There is no basis for doing away with it. It works.