

Submitter: Ezra Severin

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Requiring people to show up in person instead of mail-in voting will make it more difficult to vote for many folks. Mail in voting, with continued vigilance for genuine fraud, is more democratic and engages more of the electorate.