

Submitter:

William Baumgartner

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting is a fundamental right as an American citizen. Vote by mail reflects the changes in daily life of most Americans since independence. There is no value to regressing to in person voting. Vote by mail should be enshrined beyond the reach of politicians acting in bad faith.