SB210

Eliminating the most successful voting process in the country is surely the dreamchild of autocratic, fascist dictators, so of course it's being supported by people in favor of (checks notes) ensuring no one is elected again. Why bother going through the effort of bribing your voters or politicians if you can just put your friends into government to do your bidding, while ensuring anyone you deem an "enemy" disappears ... quietly or otherwise.

Thoroughly and utterly opposed to this bill. And please kick each supportive senator out of the Oregon Senate. This is like asking: Would you like food, to eat, or live tomorrow? (Y/N?) and pretend it's a legitimate political question. Just fuck these people. With a wooden oar.

Cheers (to Oregon),

Jaime A. Headden
