I am writing to express my strong opposition for SB 210.

Oregon's vote by mail system enhances accessibility for all voters, particularly individuals with disabilities, the elderly, and those in remote areas. Vote by mail allows everyone to participate without barriers and has consistently led to higher voter turnout in Oregon. The convenience of casting ballots at home allows voters to engage thoughtfully with the issues and candidates relevant to their lives and accommodates busy schedules. This increased participation strengthens our democracy and ensures a broader range of voices are represented. I am appalled that a bill like SB 210 has even been proposed.
