I am very happy with Oregon's vote by mail system. It encourages voting, as evidenced by our relatively high % of votes in the 2020 and other elections. It is safe and secure since the physical ballots are available for scrutiny if needed. I am appalled by the idea of going backwards to an in person vote on election day. Please do not let this terrible idea of a terrible president persuade you to change our commendable system of voting. I wish more states would do it the Oregon way!
