SB210

I moved to Oregon in 1998. Lived in a handful of other states. When my wife and I voted by mail the first time and saw how incredibly efficient and easy it was, we thought, "Safe, secure, and convenient. What a great method of voting." I realize the rest of the country is losing its collective mind. And there are plenty of things we could debate regarding policy within our state, but not this. I strongly oppose going back decades to satisfy the straw man argument that our elections are not secure. Show us the proof and we can discuss.
