

Submitter:

Kevin Roach

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Repealing vote by mail would be a huge step backwards in Oregon voting. It would make it difficult or impossible for many people to vote. I can't help but think that this is an attempt at suppressing disabled and/or poor people from voting. What in the world is this legislator thinking?