

Submitter: Kris Bugbee

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Voting by mail has proved to be a secure and viable means of conducting elections. It increases voters turnout, especially for those who have busy work schedules, are disabled, or don't otherwise have easy access to voting stations.