

Submitter:

Chance Edison

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I think that remaining in support of a mail in voting system is crucial and I very much hope that it isn't something we backpedal on so fast. It is a step in the right direction as far as preserving a democratic approach to governing bodies and in a world that is chipping away at those ideals every day, it's important we don't falter on the good that this system has brought to the community.