

Submitter:

Amy Miller

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

As a disabled member of a rural community it would be very difficult to go to a vote on Election Day. We have one of the highest voter turnouts in the country. The rate of fraud is infinitesimal compared to how many legal votes each election. There is no reason to make voting more difficult for Oregonians. I strongly oppose this bill.