

Submitter:

Nicholas Parry

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I strongly feel this decision, if passed, will make it prohibitively harder for the populace to vote. As such, it will be more advantageous for lawmakers to introduce destructive policies that have a greater chance of passing by low voter turnout. A democracy needs to represent the will of the populace and this is a barrier to that.