

Submitter:

Keara James

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Vote by mail is crucial to ensuring voters have equal say in elections. Many people do not have the means to visit polling places, or are unable to take time off from work. In person voting is not a realistic method in today's advanced society and will lead to lower turn out, guaranteed. I believe the current process has worked well for most, if not all citizens, with very low occurrences of fraud. Why fix what isn't broken?