Mail-in Voting in Oregon is wonderful and must stay in place. If the U.S. is not going to make a national holiday for voting days, allowing everyone to vote by mail is critical. For people who work different hours, travel, are house-bound, or unable to get to a polling place in general, mail-in voting is essential to allow them to vote. Voting is a Constitutional right for every citizen. Doing anything to get in the way of that goes against the right to vote. Oregon has done a very good job of registering people to vote and voter fraud is very, very low. I implore you to keep Mail-in Voting in Oregon. And, I actually think it should be mandatory in all states.
