Let's get back to voting the way I did for 30 years, and the way my family did before that. I'm not too lazy to stand in line to vote for the right to do so. Why has this right become such an issue? Is it because it's too easy to vote and the method too susceptible to fraud or abuse. Why do we always have issues with the counting of votes, or why do members of one political party favor one method over the other. Voting is an extremely important issue and right, and I am not too lazy to go vote and protect that right.
