

Submitter:

Allison Taylor

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Coming from Texas, I understand what in-person voting entails. With no mail-in option, there are long lines. LONG lines. Hours of waiting in the heat, rain, cold, whatever, just to enact your right to vote. Many people at the polling places will harass you, even though it is supposedly not allowed. The stress from voting in-person makes you not want to vote at all... and perhaps that is the point.