I oppose this bill as it is a step backwards in the way Oregonians show up to vote. It's well known that mail-in voting increases voter turnout. Returning to in-person voting on election day is a way to ensure less of us have a chance to cast our vote. Many people cannot afford to miss an entire day of work to go stand in line at the polls, I know I couldn't. We must protect mail-in voting to ensure all Oregonians can cast their vote.
